

AUTHOR GUIDELINES

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION TO GEOSPORT

Any pieces on relevant issues concerned with sport and geopolitics written by actors working in various sectors – business, media, academia, etc. – are welcomed and will be reviewed for publication.

Submissions should be sent by email to brun@iris-france.org as a Word document.

On the first sheet, please provide:

- Author's name, contact, affiliated institution, a short biographical note;
- Article's title, a 75-150 word abstract, keywords, a word count.

We accept two types of articles:

- Short form articles of no less than 600 words and no more than 1000 words, excluding footnotes, references and appendices;
- Long form articles of no less than 1,500 words and no more than 2,500 words, excluding footnotes, references and appendices.

Authors should ensure that their submission meets the following criteria:

- Timely;
- Relevant;
- Well-researched;
- Coherent;
- Presenting a clear narrative;
- Accounting for different perspectives;
- Providing examples;
- Offering meaningful conclusions;
- Engaging key target audiences.

N.B. In writing short form articles, we ask that authors include a number of relevant hyperlinks in their submissions, that help to illustrate and support their arguments.

Preparation of the manuscript:

Submissions must be double spaced throughout and follow the Harvard Style for in-text citation and references.

Spelling practices should follow British spelling conventions.

If you have any questions, please contact Estelle E. Brun by e-mail brun@iris-france.org.
